CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES"

4/2/06 – "BIN LADEN'S BODYGUARD" – 60 Minutes traveled to Yemen to interview Abu Jandel, once Osama bin Laden's personal bodyguard and still an al-Qaeda sympathizer, who claims that America's best chance to kill bin Laden came and went before 9/11. Also includes an interview with Mike Scheuer, a former CIA analyst and now a CBS News consultant.

4/2/06 – "WHAT'S GOOD FOR AMERICA" – Focus on financial problems faced by General Motors resulting from high labor costs – especially healthcare and pension payments – and tough competition. Includes interviews with David Cole, Chairman of the Center for Automotive Research; Rick Wagoner, General Motors Chairman; Gary Chaison, professor of industrial relations at Clark University; Ron Gettelfinger, UAW president; and Bob Lutz, General Motors Vice Chairman.

4/9/06 – "DEATH OF A GENERAL" – An interview with Chief Warrant Officer Lewis Welshofer, who faced court-martial for murder when Iraqi General Abid Hamed Mowhoush died after Welshofer, interrogated him using a technique that he says was sanctioned by his superiors. Also includes interviews with Frank Spinner, Welshofer's attorney; and Rep. Loretta Sanchez (D-CA), Member of the House Armed Services Committee.

4/16/06 – "TERROR BEHIND BARS" – A visit to Israel's top-security prison including interviews with: Abdullah Barghouti, mastermind behind Hamas' deadliest suicide bombings; Muhammad Jalala, a nurse turned terrorist; and Gilad Cohen, a guard at the prison. Also includes an interview with Anna Muna, a terrorist held at Hasharon Prison for women; and Israeli Major Yuval Biton, the prison dentist.

4/16/06 – “TOO MANY MEN” – In China, many more men are being born than women, an imbalance, created in part by the country's one-child policy, that has led to social instability and an increase in crime. Includes interviews with: Zhao Baige, vice minister of the family planning commission; and Valerie Hudson, a political scientist of Brigham Young University and co-author of a book on Asia's male surplus.

5/28/06 – “MAFIA COPS?” – Ex-New York detectives Stephen Caracappa and Louis Eppolito, are charged with the murders of 10 people, murders committed on the orders of a Mafia boss. In an interview (“The Most Feared Gangster” OAD: 9/20/98) with mob boss Anthony “Gaspipe” Casso; and an interview with Ed Hayes, Caracappa's attorney. Louis Eppolito (not interviewed) also contends that he is innocent of all charges.

6/4/06 – “DYING TO GET IN” – The U.S. Government's efforts to secure the Mexican border have not only failed to stop the flow of illegal immigrants into the U.S., but have had the effect of driving more into the desert where over a thousand died last year.

Includes interviews with: border patrol officer Garrett Neubauer; Dr. Bruce Parks, Tucson's medical examiner; Mark Reed, immigration official in San Diego; T.J. Boner, head of the Border Patrol Agents Union; Rep. Tom Tancredo (R-CO); and Wayne Cornelius, an authority on immigration at the University of California.

6/18/06 – “BURNING RAGE” – A report on the Earth Liberation Front and the Animal Liberation Front, extremist environmental and animal rights groups whose increasingly violent tactics – including arson and bombings – make them the biggest domestic terror threat. Includes interviews with: Jeff Carle, San Diego Fire Department; Ron Coronado, a former ALF leader; John Lewis, FB deputy assistant director for counter-terrorism; Dr. Jerry Vlasak, trauma surgeon and spokesman for several animal rights groups; and David Strange, FBI Investigator.

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: “48 HOURS MYSTERY”

4/8/06 – “LOVE LOST” – Focuses on new evidence in the investigation of the July 2005 disappearance of honeymooner George Smith from the cruise ship Brilliance of the Seas. Four young men who had been drinking and gambling with Smith and his bride Jennifer in the hours previous to his disappearance were considered prime suspects. Includes an interview with Dr. Jerry Askins, a podiatrist whose son Josh, a college student from California, was one of them. Josh and his companions told police that they escorted a drunken Smith back to his cabin and left him on his bed and that this wife, Jennifer Hagel Smith, was nowhere to be found. Also includes interviews with George Smith's parents, Maureen and George Sr., and his sister Bree. George Smith is presumed to have gone overboard into the waters off Greece at approximately 4:30am, almost the exact moment when a crew member found Jennifer on the other side of the ship, slumped over on the floor with no memory of what happened. The families of George Smith and Jennifer Hagel Smith plan a joint wrongful death lawsuit against the Royal Caribbean cruise line.

4/15/06 – “A KNOCK ON THE DOOR” – In 1982, in the town of Olathe, Kansas, a young banker named David Harmon was bludgeoned to death in his bed. His wife Melinda told authorities that two men intent on robbing the bank where David worked had broken into their home and committed the crime. Investigators believed, but could not prove, that Melinda was involved in a secret affair with family friend Mark Mangelsdorf, and that the two were involved in David's murder. Nearly 20 years later, armed with new forensic technology, police zeroed in on the couple: Mangelsdorf, an independent business consultant in New York City, is now married with five children and lives in Pelham, NY; Melinda, now living in Columbus, Ohio is married to a dentist and is the mother of two. Melinda was tried and found guilty of murder and conspiracy to commit murder. Facing a sentence of life in prison, she offered the prosecutor information about what happened the night of the murder in exchange for a lighter sentence. Melinda and Mangelsdorf, who entered a guilty plea, will be sentenced on May 12.

4/12/06 – “THE MARILYN TAPES” – An investigation of the apparent suicide, on August 4, 1962, of actress Marilyn Monroe. In 1982, amid public outcry concerning allegations of conspiracy and a cover-up following Monroe’s death, the Los Angeles District Attorney was forced to re-examine the evidence. Using the California Public Records Act, 48 Hours filed a petition and obtained 309 pages of internal documents and approximately five-and-a-half hours of audio taped interviews with key sources. Included are interviews with: Jeanne Carmen, a close friend of Monroe’s; Anthony Summers, biographer and journalist who acted as a consultant to 48 Hours; actor Tony Curtis’ Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner; Dr. Hyman Engleberg, Monroe’s personal physician; Eunice Murray, her housekeeper; Dr. Steven Karch, a forensic pathologist; Rick Stone and Ken Hunter, ambulance attendants who were dispatched to Monroe’s home; and Daryl Gates, former Los Angeles Police Chief.

4/29/06 – “DEADLY PROPOSAL” – In February, 1999, Stephanie Pepper, a Louisiana Tech University professor, married David Sims, an accountant, ten years her senior. Two years into their marriage, David and Stephanie were growing apart. In November 2002, Stephanie and her friend, Ginger Steward, visited a local bar where Stephanie met Wayne Guidry, Jr. who claimed to be a professional golfer spending some time in the area hunting during the off season. Less than a week after Stephanie met Guidry, she told David she wanted to separate, and five weeks after the affair began, Stephanie disappeared. With the help of Erik Dufrene, a body was found in the Jackson Bienville Management Preserve. Guidry was arrested, tried and found guilty of the murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. He is appealing his conviction.

5/6/06 – “THE LAST DANCE” – In July 2002, 18-year-old Catherine Woods left her home in Columbus, Ohio to pursue a career as a dancer in New York City. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend Catherine was savagely murdered. David Haughn, a rap musician and Catherine’s live-in boyfriend was the initial suspect. In the fall of 2004 Catherine had met Paul Cortez, a 25-year-old vocalist in a rock band. He called her parents, Jon and Donna Woods, and told them that Catherine was performing at a topless bar, and suggested that she was involved with both drugs and prostitution. Police say that Paul Cortez’ fingerprints match one bloody print found in Catherine Woods’ apartment and, on December 23, 2005, he was charged with her murder. Prior sexual assault charges against Paul Cortez were dropped, but he is expected to go to trial next fall for the murder of Catherine Woods. If convicted he could be sentenced to life in prison.

5/13/06 – “CHEATIN’ HEART” – Randy Hardison, a successful country songwriter, was assaulted outside his Nashville apartment on June 1, 2002; he died three days later. He had been helping Catina Skipper, an aspiring singer. They began an affair and, according to Hardison’s friends, Skipper’s husband, Ronnie, threatened Hardison. Police considered Ronnie Skipper to be the prime suspect but, three days into the investigation, a man calling himself “Julius” called the homicide bureau claiming that he had been hired to beat up Hardison by a Dr. Jones. The lead proved groundless, and Ronnie Skipper and Orlando Smith, one of his employees, were brought to trial. Despite Catina Skipper’s claim that she was responsible for Randy Hardison’s death, both Skipper and Orlando were found guilty of aggravated assault. After serving seven months in jail, they were released. Catina Skipper was convicted of perjury and served two months in jail. Includes interviews with country music stars Lee Ann Womack and Darryl Worley.

5/20/06 – “DUTY, DEATH, DISHONOR” – 25-year-old U.S. Army Specialist Richard Davis, from a military family, began his career in the Army as a peacekeeper in Bosnia and was later assigned to the 3rd Infantry Division based in Fort Benning, Ga. and took part in the March 2003 invasion of Iraq. Davis survived his tour of duty in Iraq and returned to the U. S. on July 13, 2003. After celebrating his homecoming with four Army buddies in Columbus, GA, Davis disappeared and was listed by the Army as AWOL. In September, two months after Davis' disappearance the Army opened an official investigation and on November 7th, 2003, a tip led to the discovery of his body. Nearly four months later, four soldiers who were last with Davis – Jacob Burgoyne, Alberto Martinez, Mario Navarette and Douglas Woodcoff – were arrested. Jacob Burgoyne, previously diagnosed with PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder), identified Alberto Martinez as the sole killer. Douglas Woodcoff agreed to cooperate with authorities once murder charges against him were dropped. A jury found Alberto Martinez and Mario Navarette guilty of murder with a sentence of life in prison. Jacob Burgoyne, who pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter, received a twenty-year sentence. Douglas Woodcoff pled guilty to concealing a death and was sentenced to five years of probation. Both Navarette and Martinez are seeking new trials.

5/27/06 – “THE PRETENDER” – A report on Christian Longo, a man on the run, charged with killing his wife and three children, who assumed the identity of Michael Finkel, an award-winning New York Times reporter. Finkel, who admitted to fabricating a portion of a story on child slavery in West Africa, was subsequently fired by the newspaper. Curious to learn why someone would want to steal his identity, Finkel met with Longo and, based on conversations, a series of letters and phone calls, put together an account of events leading up to the murders and Long's apprehension. Christian Longo was tried, found guilty of all four murders and sentenced to death. He has since changed his story and is working on an appeal. The broadcast was based on an excerpt of “True Story: Murder, Memoir, Mea Culpa” a book on the murders written by Michael Finkel.

5/30/06 – “DEADLY OBSESSION” – Carl “Charlie Brandt, a Big Pine Key, Fla. Man appeared to be devoted to his wife of 17 years, Teri, and close to her family. When Hurricane Ivan threatened the Florida Keys in September 2004, the Brandts sought refuge in the Orlando home of Teri's niece, Michelle Jones, a television executive at the Golf Channel. A few days after the Brandt's arrival, police discovered the bodies of: Teri Brandt who had been stabbed to death; Michelle Jones, also dead and brutally dismembered; and Charlie, who had hanged himself in the garage. Lead investigator Rob Hemmert's first clue came when Brandt's older sister Angela revealed that in 1971, Charlie, then 13, had shot both his father and mother in their Ft. Wayne, Ind. Home. Brandt's mother, eight months pregnant, died of her injuries. Because Brandt was a juvenile, state authorities never charged him with murder but sent him to a mental institution for a little more than a year. Further investigation indicated that Brandt had committed a number of other murders. Michelle's parents, Bill and Mary Lou are pushing for a public database to include anyone of any age who killed another person, regardless of the circumstances. Investigator Rob Hemmert is trying to win the release of Charlie Brandt's mental health records in an effort to understand the motivation of a serial killer.

6/3/06 – “SECRETS & LIES ON GRAPEVINE LAKE” – In April, 2002, the body of successful real estate agent David Nixon of Grapevine, Texas, was discovered in a storm drain in a nearby town. He had been shot in the heart and his remains burned beyond recognition. At the time of the murder Nixon and his live-in girlfriend Tracy Frame were in the process of splitting up and were fighting over the house where they both lived. Police investigating the crime focused on frame that denied any wrongdoing. Three years after Nixon's death, Tracy Frame was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 40 years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 20 years. She is appealing the verdict. Includes interviews with: Tracy Frame; Donna Lella, David Nixon's first wife; Nicholas, their son; Jerry Vowell, a used car dealer, who was scheduled to meet David Nixon the night he disappeared; Detective Larry Hallmark; Donald Feare, Tracy's defense attorney; and the prosecutor, Assistant D.A. Sean Colston.

6/6/06 – "SEX, LIES AND THE DOCTOR'S WIFE" – Karen Tipton, a mother of two and the wife of prominent psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, was found stabbed to death in her Decatur, Alabama home in March 1999. Police quickly ruled out the husband as a suspect, and a month later arrested 24-year-old Daniel Wade Moore, who worked for the alarm company that had installed a security system in the Tipton home. Moore, a drug user, had initially confessed to his uncle to being present at the scene of the murder, but later retracted his statement. Despite the lack of physical evidence, Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to death row. Eight months following the conviction, Moore's defense attorneys discovered that prosecutors had withheld potentially conclusive information in the case including an FBI report suggesting that Karen was having multiple affairs, and may have known her killer. In a stunning reversal in February 2005, the same judge who sentenced Moore to death released him from prison. The state appealed the decision and Daniel Moore is now awaiting a new trial that could set him free.

6/10/06 – "SCARED TO DEATH" – Jim and Vickie Barton, a Springboro, Ohio couple owned and lived on a horse farm. Jim was lieutenant with the Springboro police department, with aspirations of becoming police chief, and Vickie was a head nurse at the local hospital. In April 1995, Jim came home from work and found Vickie had been shot to death. For three years there were virtually no leads in the case and no arrests, but in 1998 Gary Henson, a career criminal, told police that his half-brother, Will Phelps shot Vickie by accident while he and an unidentified accomplice were in the process of burglarizing the Barton home. Four months later, Phelps committed suicide. In 2003, a countywide cold case team was formed to take a second look at Vickie's murder. The squad discovered a portion of audiotape from Jim's 911 call, which revealed a discrepancy in his testimony. Subsequently, Gary Henson told police that Jim Barton was responsible for his wife's death because he had sent Phelps to the house to scare Vicki in hopes of driving her to live in town where Jim supposedly needed to live to become police chief. A jury found Jim Barton guilty of involuntary manslaughter and he will serve at least 15 years in prison. He plans to appeal the verdict. There is no legal requirement for the Springboro Police Chief to live within city limits.

6/27/06 – "STRANGE TRUTH" – In the early morning hours of March 21, 2003, Romona "Mona" Krotine left an office party just outside Cleveland, Ohio, and was never seen alive again. Nearly 24 hours later, she was found in the trunk of her car, beaten and shot to death. At first, police suspected a botched robbery because Mona was carrying the cash receipts from working at a concession earlier that day. Subsequently, Mona's husband, Jeffrey, began acting suspiciously, and the focus of the police investigation shifted to a domestic murder. Authorities believed that Mona had actually returned home after the party and that Jeffrey, having killed her, attempted to cover up the crime by destroying evidence, including portions of bedroom carpet and a large headboard. The case, largely circumstantial, went to trial twice, both times resulting in a hung jury. The jury at a third trial found Krotine not guilty. Officially the murder of Mona Krotine remains an open case, but Jeff Krotine can never be retried for his wife's murder.
